Die Jovis, 20 Febr. 1644.

An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in PARLIAMENT.

WHereas the monethly Sum of One and thirty thousand pounds was formerly agreed to be paid to the Scottish Forces under the Command of the Earl of Leven, out of the estates of Papists, Prelates, Malignants, and their Adherents, and otherwise: And whereas afterwards, by additionall-Instructions, of, on, or about the ninth of March, 1643. by the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, to the Committees therein named, Power and Authority was given to the said Committees for raising of Moneys out of the severall Collections, Taxes, Revenues and Assessments therein particularly mentioned, in the severall Counties of Nottingham, York, Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmerland; City of York, and County of the same; the Town of Nottingham, and County of the same; and the Town of Newcastle, and County of the same, for and towards the payment of the said Scottish Forces, and such other Forces as then were, or should be raised, by authority of Parliament, in the said Counties, and otherwise, as then was, or should be directed by both Houses of Parliament: The said Lords and Commons finding, that the Moneys arising out of the Revenues and Means last before mentioned, are not sufficient for the maintenance of all the said Forces ; and that the said Counties being so much wasted and impoverished , the said Moneys cannot be raised as was expected , nor as the wants & necessities of the said Forces do require ; and to the intent that our Brethren of Scotland may receive the greater encouragement to march South-ward : The said Lords and Commons are resolved to raise the sum of One and twenty thousand pounds Monethly , out of the Sequestrations of Delinquents Estates , for and towards the payment of the said Forces : But finding the Sequestrations to be charged with great Sums of money , so that for the present no money can be had out of the same ; do hereby Ordain and Declare , That the severall Monethly Sums of money , hereafter in this Ordinance mentioned , shall for four Moneths , beginning the first of March, 1644. be Charged , Raised , Taxed and Levied upon all and every the severall Counties , Cities , Towns , Liberties and Places hereafter mentioned , according to the Proportions , Rates and Distributions in this present Ordinance expressed , the same to be payed monethly to the severall persons appointed by this Ordinance for the receiving thereof.
